

SANGHARAKSHITA IN SEMINAR

THE THREE JEWELS

Chapters focusing respectively on
The Round, The Spiral and The Spiritual Community:

Chapter 10 - The Wheel of Life,
Chapter 13 - The Stages of The Path, and
Chapter 15 - The Assembly of the Elect

*(Sangharakshita, Windhorse, Purley, 1977.
First Published Rider, London 1967)*

CONTENTS

1-2	The Chapter on the Wheel of Life - two parts to the chapter: karma and the Wheel of Life itself
2	Consciousness determining being
3	Misuses of the term 'karma' - Karma, karmaphala and karmavipaka What 'karma' is karma = cetana = samskaras cetana as clear volition the samskaras as 'more of a muddle'
4	Involuntary actions do not constitute karma The story of the monk accidentally sitting on, crushing and killing a child
5	Karma as a form of cause and karmavipaka as a form of effect The five nikayas of the Pali Canon and the Agamas of the Sanskrit Canon Whatever you will produces its effect
5-8	The five niyamas - utu-niyama, bija-niyama, mano-niyama, karma-niyama and dharma-niyama
7	Some symptoms of so-called illness, including mental illness can be due to spiritual changes taking place Spiritual practice - tapas - heat
7	Transforming the body into the rainbow body
8	Karma is only one kind of causation
8-9	The misunderstanding of all suffering being due to past karma Hindus in India relating this to the caste system
9	Collective karma of a species i.e. insects
10	The law of karma is not an iron law, a rigid law or an inescapable law according to Buddhism How do we know that something is due to karma? - the method of residues
11-13	Euthanasia - is there a Buddhist view?
14	The Universal Consciousness - alayavijnana Bodhisattvas interfering with the law of karma Getting beyond the law of karma
15	Pain as a gift? What the Abhidharma literature is
16	The seven principles of classification of karmas
16-17	Wholesome (skilful) karma and unwholesome (unskilful) karma

- 17-18 Speech and action being distinguished Guenther's definitions of body, speech and mind
- 18-19 Body, speech and mind in the salutation to the shrine
Gesture, dance and the arts as speech
- 19 Kant's Critique of Judgement
- 20 The stories of the woman worshipping a dog's tooth thinking it was the Buddha's, and of the Zen monk carrying the girl across the stream
- 21-23 Like attracting like, both wholesome and unwholesome - the appropriateness of the resultant experience
- 24 Micchaditthis - confusion of thought
Bringing out from others what is in you
- 24-25 Results of good karma
- 25 Karmas which may never ripen
- 25-33 Weighty, death-proximate, habitual and residual karmas
- 26 Devadatta The dhyanas as healthy weighty volitions
- 27-29 Unhealthy weighty volitions - matricide, parricide, killing an Arhant, wounding a Buddha, creating a schism within the Sangha
- 28 The importance of trying to make one's relationship with one's parents positive
- 29-30 Death-proximate karma - one's mental state at the time of death
- 31 Habitual karma Breaking positive habits?
- 32 The micchaditthi which is against any regularity of practice
- 33 'Meditation' in the catholic priesthood
- 34 Unmindfulness being a very serious matter in Buddhism
Culpable negligence
- 35 On to the Wheel of Life
The kamaloka, rupaloka and arupaloka
- 36 How many sub-planes are there in all three lokas? (27 or 32)
- 37-38 The sphere of the gods should be twenty two times larger in scale than each of the other five spheres shown on the diagrammatic Wheel of Life
- 39-40 The conflict between the asuras and the gods
- 40 The wish fulfilling tree, cow and pot
- 41 'The criterion of the good is not the agreeable'
- 42 Is it necessary to enter the realm of the gods?
- 43 Are Pure Lands within the Wheel of Life?
- 43-45 The Anagami of the Hinayana and the Pure Land of the Mahayana
- 45 The original model of the Wheel of Life
- 46 Lobha, Dvesa and Moha - not just greed hatred and delusion
The black and white half circles on the wheel - those going down being chained together
- 46-48 The six realms with a form of Avalokiteshvara in each of them
- 48-50 The twelve nidanas or 'links' in the process of pratityasamutpada
- 50-51 The wheel over past, present and future lives
- 53 The Wheel existing inside as well as outside Buddha-fields, pure lands and impure lands/worlds
- 54 Next Session - The Stages of the Path
- 57 Path and Fruit - the Four Noble Truths
- 58 "This process of reaction in a progressive order constitutes the basic principle of the Path taught by the Buddha"
- 59 Moving up the spiral

59-60	Following a Middle Way
61-63	The diagram of the basic framework of Bhante's teaching - two circles linked by a spiral
	The principle of the Path in a few words
62	The Refuge Tree
63	The Christian devil is just a normal healthy, happy human being
	The twelve links of the Spiral
64-67	Inspirations to start on the spiral
67	Indian schools of thought about cause and effect - Satkalyavadins and Asatkalyavadins
67	From dukkha to faith
68-69	Experiences leading to faith - spiritual experiences
70-71	Sraddha - faith - the healthy counterpart of trsna - craving
72	Where there is faith there is generosity
	From faith to delight (pamojja)
73	Systematically surveying one's own practice of the precepts
73-75	The importance of confession in Buddhism
75	Becoming more refined/less coarse through meditation
76	From delight to joy, rapture, ecstasy (priti)
76-77	'Probably most human beings don't use more than five to ten percent of their energy'
77-78	Degrees of priti/rapture
78	Rapture to calmness (prasrabdhi)
	Stages of meetings - dullness/boredom - aggressiveness/argumentativeness mixed with cheerfulness and laughter - calmness and harmony
79-81	Calmness to bliss (sukha)
82-83	Having communication 'on the cheap'
82-84	Using communication exercises responsibly
84-85	Misidentifying any stage of the path with the goal
86	Bliss to concentration (samadhi)
86-89	Encouraging and coaxing rather than forcing by sheer effort of will
89	Getting caught up in the techniques of meditation and thereby not really meditating
	Note: this section ends with the seventh nidana - samadhi.
89	Chapter 15: The Assembly of the Elect
	The three principal meanings of Sangha
93	You can't really have the benefits (of Sangha) without the commitment (to Enlightenment) too
94	'Brotherly' feelings increasing in the (F)WBO Sangha
95-96	The Arya Sangha and the aryans - Stream Entrants, Once Returners, Non-Returners and Arahants
96	The Deities of the Path and the Gods of the Round
96-97	The Arhant
97-117	The Stream Entrant
100	Getting a definite glimpse of things as they really are
	The seven holy persons
100-103 -	The Faith Follower and the Doctrine Follower
102	Balancing the Five Spiritual Faculties
	Gautama the intellectual type (of Buddha) to be followed by Maitreya the devotional type

- 102 Tsongkhapa and Milarepa as representative of the two types
- 103 The faith liberated one and the Vision attained one
The body witness ('psychically sensitive type')
- 104 The wisdom liberated one and The doubly liberated one
- 105 The Eight Holy Persons
- 106 Breaking the first three fetters
- 107 The closeness of suffering and happiness
- 108 "Things aren't as bad as you think - they are worse!"
- 109 Defining Insight
The first fetter - sakayadrsti - personality view - 'one is what one is and it cannot change'
- 110 Definitions of the soul - Aristotle
- 111 The second fetter - doubt - a reluctance to make up one's mind
- 111 The third fetter - dependence on morality and observances
- 112 Ritual - the unworthiness of the priests not affecting the efficacy of the sacrament in Catholicism
- 113 Luther and Protestantism's protests
- 114 The Once-Returner - weakening the fourth and fifth fetters - sensuous craving and aversion
- 115 The Non-Returner - eradicating sensuous craving and aversion
The Arhant - breaking the five higher fetters - craving for existence in the world of pure form and in the formless world, conceit, restlessness, and lack of clear understanding of Reality
- 116-117 The Pratyeka (or 'Private') Buddha
Reading to the end of the chapter
- 118 The laity living a spiritual life by proxy
- 119 The Thai government's control of the bhikkhus
- 122 How bishops are appointed in Britain by the Prime Minister
- 122 Sangharakshita, "The Buddhist Vicar of Hampstead"!